

Perfect Love

Darlene Zschech

My beautiful boy
Holiness I see
Perfect so pure
Your eyes they trust in me

All creation bows to You
The skies sing Your arriving
My precious Jesus

And You will walk this land
My precious gift from God
Showing all mankind
The only way to life

All creation sings Your praise
The angels will proclaim
My precious Jesus

All of heaven's gaze is on You
The glory of God shines for all to see
The Son of God, the Son of man

You are perfection promised
Giver of life for all eternity
My little one, perfect love
