

Sing Over Me

Darlene Zschech

Holy one
I come again
And run into the shelter of your wing

On my knees
Before you now
You gently lift the burden of my heart
And you sing over me
Yes you sing over me

The wonder of
The mystery of
Your unfailing love, forever
How wonderful
How beautiful
Your amazing love, forever

Breathe on me, holy one
I linger in the presence of your love
Heavens song, sung to me
Lifts me up again to bring you praise

And you sing over me
Yes you sing over me
Heavens song, surrounding me
Yes you sing over me
