

Devil You Know

Dave Dobbyn

If I'da known you yesterday
If I'da known it'd turn out today
I was prone to believe in a love with no ending
And now I know your devotion's unbending
You blow me away
Yesterday baby
If you'da known I'da led you astray
I was prone- I was weak- I'da been hell to live with
Now I'm a nomad- I'm taking you with me
I'll take you away

Does this throw you?
Does this bother you?
You're taking on a gamble
Knowing how I ramble on Girl you lit the fire- everburning on
Girl I'll be the one who'll be waiting for you

Better the devil you know
The best of the worst you can handle
And will you follow?
Will you follow?
Will you follow?
