

Hanging In The Wire

Dave Dobbyn

The marine forecast looks clean for a couple of days in a row now
Well ain't that just dandy
Come make yourself right at home now
Whatever you need for your redemption
Anything you want I can supply
Whatever you need for your redemption
Well I wouldn't want to leave you hanging in the wire
No way baby

When I'm daydreaming with you
My favourite worthy pursuit
I'll take you to town in your new suit and later we'll listen to a
New kind of blue
Whatever you need for your redemption
Anything you want I can supply
Whenever you need avoid detection
Well I wouldn't wanna leave you dangling in the wire
Whatever you need for your redemption
Anything you want I can supply
Whenever you need for your protection
Well I wouldn't wanna leave you dangling in the wire

And there's no grander gesture there
In your familiar lack of future
No superhighway here

Take my car keys and go out wild on the highway
They say a man don't become one
Till the reaper's near upon him

Whatever you need for your protection
Anything you want I can supply
Whatever you need for your redemption
Well I wouldn't want to leave you hanging in the wire
