

Outlook For Thursday

Dave Dobbyn

Good evening love, how's your day
I'm bringing you the weather from a satellite jigsaw
Today was fine, tears at times
A weak ridge from pressure from the hinter to the heartland

No joie de vivre
A briny breeze
Collars on the upturn
A nod towards the winter

And Monday is a Monday
Tuesday's a thunder day
With a wind that chills you to the bone
Wednesday, don't mention Wednesday
Not a good one at all

Otherwise fine
Otherwise it's dandy
Otherwise fine
Otherwise just over the top

You got really rotten weather
It's your heart, I know you guessed so
Tell me where a weatherman should start
When he's miles from his sunshine

Promise you the warmest winter fire
When outside it's freezing cold
Promise you the bluest summer sky
It'll shine just for you

Yes indeed the outlook for Thursday
Your guess is good as mine
We'll be together, yeah
Together by design, sunshine...
Sunshine... sunshine

Otherwise fine...
Otherwise just dandy
Otherwise fine
Otherwise just over the top

You got really rotten weather
It's your heart, I know you guessed so
Tell me where a weatherman should start
When he's miles from his sunshine

Promise you the warmest winter fire
When outside it's freezing cold
Promise you the bluest summer sky
It'll shine just for you

And indeed the outlook for Thursday
Your guess is good as mine
We'll be together, yeah
Together by design, sunshine...
Sunshine... sunshine
