

You Oughta Be in Love

Dave Dobbyn

A winning love is hard enough to find
And when you've got it, never leave it behind
Hold on and give it all you have
When it's given back you'll be a powerful man

And when, here she comes
In walks my baby
Her smile's more than enough to tell me why

Shouldn't you oughta be in love?
Wouldn't you rather be in love?
Shouldn't you oughta be in love?
Wouldn't you rather be in love?

With the headlights of her love to light my way
Safe in my arms, I'll never be led astray
When you wanna leave the troubled world behind you
Pack up your woes and worries and never you mind

And when, here she comes
In walks my baby
Her smile's more than enough to tell me why

Shouldn't you oughta be in love?
Wouldn't you rather be in love?
Shouldn't you oughta be in love?
Wouldn't you rather be in love?

Shouldn't you oughta be in love?
Wouldn't you rather be in love?
Shouldn't you oughta be in love?
Wouldn't you rather be in love?
