

Maybe

Dave Mason

Maybe I can love you
Maybe be your friend
Maybe I can help you, your troubles to mend
Maybe sing a song for you
That's what I know best to do
Anything you want me to I'll be
Anything you want me to I'll be

Maybe we'll be strangers
Till our dying day
Maybe then we'll understand what we had to say
Maybe when we've closed the door
On all that's negative in thought
Anyway you want it, it can be
Anyway you want it, it can be

Lift your head now
Tears you've shed
Are all ignored

Take a hand and make a stand
Against all wars

Are you dreaming
Or just scheming, for reward

Life's illusions are misleading
It's so good to be here breathing

Anyway you want it, it can be
Anyway you want it, it can be

Lift your head now
Tears you've shed
Are all ignored

Take a hand and make a stand
Against all wars

Are you dreaming
Or just scheming, for reward

Life's illusions are misleading
It's so good to be here breathing

Maybe I can love you
Maybe be your friend
Maybe I can help you, your troubles to mend
Maybe sing a song for you
That's what I know best to do

Anything you want me to I'll be
Anything you want me to I'll be
