

Warfare

David Cook

You know I'm stuck to you like static
You're in my blood like automatic
Yeah the deeper down we go
We spin around like vertigo
You're the drug and I'm the addict

Baby this is warfare
This is a battle
If I can't have you
Nothing else matters
Fightin' for your love
Fightin' for your love
Fightin' for your love
This is warfare
This is a battle
If I can't have you
Nothing else matters
Fightin' for your love
Fightin' for your love
Fightin' for your love

Now the fire's getting closer
It's getting hard to keep composure
But no matter where it turns
We got that love forever burn
You're the war and I'm your soldier

Baby this is warfare
This is a battle
If I can't have you
Nothing else matters
Fightin' for your love
Fightin' for your love
Fightin' for your love
This is warfare
This is a battle
If I can't have you
Nothing else matters
Fightin' for your love
Fightin' for your love
Fightin' for your love

Another night to kick the habit
Of living life monochromatic
I need your touch like something tragic
'Cause you're the drug and I'm the addict

Baby this is warfare
This is a battle
If I can't have you
Nothing else matters
Fightin' for your love
Fightin' for your love
Fightin' for your love
This is warfare
If I can't have you

Nothing else matters
Fightin' for your love
Fightin' for your love
Fightin' for your love

Fightin' for your love
Fightin' for your love
Fightin' for your love
