

Here It Comes Again

David Essex

Heh heh, da do do da da da da de

See the man standing in the shadow
He look just a lot like me
Do you remember my picture
Do you remember me

I was your moonlight tripper
I was the love of your life
You changed you changed direction
You told me, told many lies

Oh girl, here we come again
Oh girl, never knew just when

Girl you, you hurt my pride
Look I run I just can't hide
Ain't no matter where I run too
I hear your voice whispering through, girl

The rain falls
I stand in the shadows
You see but you don't show
It's love burning to an ember
Yes the end but oh no no no no

Here it comes again
Oh girl, I never knew just when

Oh yeah I love you
Oh yeah yes I do
Just to hold you
In the morning
Get you through
To have you there
Have you there
Have you there
To have you there
There
There
Have you there.....Yeah

See the man standing in the shadow
He looks just a lot like me
Do you remember my picture
Do you remember me, girl yeah

I was your moonlight tripper
I was the love of your life
But you've changed you've changed direction
You told me so many lies lies

Oh girl, here it comes again
Oh girl, never know just when
Here it comes again
Never know just when

Here it comes again
Here it comes again
Here it comes again
Here it comes again
Here it comes again
Here it comes again
Here it comes again
Here it comes again
