

Change

Dawn Richard

don't know if he knows he is adiamond in a rough
Cause he used to be showed that he is not wnough
Need to start showing him veery day
If he was religion I will be the faith
They change they change still same
They change they change still same
I still love you like angels do
They change they change still same
They change they change still same
I still love you like I suppose to

Oh God I pray he won't .. feeling
I won't see daylight if he ain't mine
I won't let you go tonight
Do you see love in my eye
Boy ire ally try
I ain't letting you go
Find More lyrics at www.sweetslyrics.com
The one that you are . I need to handle things that really use
..

Are we gonna be
They change they change still same
They change they change still same
I still love you like angels do
They change they change still same
They change they change still same
I still love you like I suppose to
They change they change still same
They change they change still same
I still love you like angels do
They change they change still same
They change they change still same
I still love you like I suppose to