

Fighting for somebody
Fulfilling my needs
That used to ground me
We'll always have each other
Cuddle and loving
But it won't be the same

Feel, feel fly
Feel, I'm feeling fly

I fall in love
I'm growing up
Suddenly I'm building my empire
Surrounded by you

They say you wanna fix me
The world is so free
Your fate is underway
One lover to another
Collapse in my grave
But it won't be the same

Feel, feel fly
Feel, I'm feeling fly

I fall in love
I'm growing up
Suddenly I'm building my empire
Surrounded by you
I fall in love
I'm growing up
Suddenly I'm building my empire
Surrounded by you
Surrounded by you

Relax your mind
Love, be patient now
We're growing up

I fall in love
I'm growing up
Suddenly I'm building my empire
Surrounded by you
I fall in love
I'm growing up
Suddenly I'm burning my empire
