

Low Light

Dayshell

I've known forever that you long for me
But the misinformation lead the way I see you
Caught in a bottle and I wanna lie
I can't deny I'm trouble tonight

So I lay an eye
(You had)

You think you've got it
You think you've had enough
I can turn the pages, girl, but
You never see the pleasure erupt
This is what you started
When I'm at the room tonight
But it's gotta be low light

Back to the winter of December three
When my broad was the gaze and you silenced me up
This can't be the money I ain't got no luck
Who self-destructs I'm trouble tonight

So I lay an eye
So I lay an eye
(You had)

You think you've got it
You think you've had enough
I can turn the pages, girl, but
You never see the pleasure erupt
This is what you started
When I'm at the room tonight
But it's gotta be low light

You think you've got it
(You think you've got it)
You think you've had enough
I can turn the pages, girl, but
You never see the pleasure erupt
This is what you started
(This what you started)
When I'm at the room tonight
But it's gotta be low light

I'm standing so tall now
Capsulize
Spinning so free as I can
Yeah

You think you've got it
(You think you've got it)
You think you've had enough
I can turn the pages, girl, but
You never see the pleasure erupt
This is what you started
(This what you started)
When I'm at the room tonight
But it's gotta be low light

You think you've got it
(You think you've got it)
You think you've had enough
I can turn the pages, girl, but
You never see the pleasure erupt
This is what you started
(This what you started)
When I'm at the room tonight
But it's gotta be low light

Gotta be low light
Gotta be low light
Gotta be low light
But it's gotta be low light
