

Speaking In Tongues

Dayshell

We speak in tongues, I,
I'm sorry but I don't understand you,
Well making your own time,
To cast my spirit away

I'm having this feeling,
I'm losing my dreaming,
Constantly cursed,
But away oh,
Talk enough to stretch your lies

We speak in tongues I,
I'm sorry but I don't understand you,
Well making your own time,
To cast my spirit away

It just feels deceiving,
I'm losing the feeling,
Could this be the worst,
But I just don't know,
Talk enough to stretch your lies,
Talk enough to stretch your lies!

We speak in tongues I,
I'm sorry but I don't understand you,
Well making your own time,
To cast my spirit away
[x2]

You were trying to teach me,
All that's wrong, oh
Never gonna run,
Never gonna hide,
Preaching to my soul,
Bring my fears alive,
You will never defeat me,
On your (own)

(We) speak in tongues I,
I'm sorry but I don't understand you,
Well making your own time,
To cast my spirit away
