Death Of Me

I don't have a clue But I know I'm a fool for you I don't wanna be A paltry slave to my destiny

I shine I hurt I stumble And might be led astray Believe Believe You'll be the death of me

I don't have a clue But I guess I'm in love with you Baby you've blown my mind I have cravings of the strangest kind

I shine I hurt I stumble And might be led astray Believe Believe You'll be the death of me

Beautiful things will happen to you Beautiful things will make them come true De/Vision
