

I'm Not Enough

De/Vision

I can't breathe in this atmosphere
No air no life in here
An all-enveloping silence
Multiplied my fear
Killed myself a million times
To feel that I'm alive
Reconstruct myself every day,
anyway

I'm not enough
I'm never enough
i have left no stone unturned
Rest in me
Breathe life into me
I'm dying over and over again
Rock me to sleep
And bury me deep
Deep inside your hollow wounds
Rest in me
Breathe life into me
I'm dying over and over again

I'm living on borrowed time
I am past my prime
Quite determined to exhaust myself
And live in someone else
Everybody needs a little affection
Once in a while Reincarnation of a broken soul
All alone
