

Epitaph

DeadLock

Keep on struggling
With a world on your shoulders
A thin line between you
And this parasitic void

Breathe in
(And this parasitic void)
Bleed out

Your body's broken
Your senses collapsed
Perceive the absence
Of pure innocence

Fading
(Of this pure innocence)
Falling

With mouths open
We swallow
Each word ever spoken

Read the words of fate
Read the words of ruin
It's written on my epitaph
There is no way (no way)
Of denying (denying)
The words of my own death

The end of the line
It's coming closer
In sight

Retribution
Will take its place
Retaliation
Is my escape

Fading
(This is the end of my line)
Falling
(It's coming closer
In sight)

Retaliation
My line
Retribution
Will take place

Read the words of fate
Read the words of ruin
It's written on my epitaph
There is no way
Of denying
The words of my own death

This is the end of my line

Read the words of fate
Read the words of ruin
It's written on my epitaph
There is no way
Of denying

It's written on my epitaph
There is no way
Of denying
The words of my own death
My own death
