

Blueberry Sky

Dean Brody

When I think of Summer, I'm workin' at Pete's garage
And I see a Greyhound bus, a pretty girl steps off
You need a ride to your Grandma's house, so I grab the towtruck keys
And by the time the week was through, well I got fired from Pet e's
'Cause I was chasin' you through fields and we were runnin' 'ne ath

The blueberry blueberry blueberry blueberry sky Beautiful daydream, you were amazing girl you were mine
That sundress, hair a mess, bumblebees overhead, stoppin' time yea we sure tried
When I think of summer, I'm with you back under that blueberry
sky

When I hear a church bell ring, we're runnin' off your Grandma' s porch
Barefoot in our muddy jeans, getting caught beneath that bridge in a thunderstorm
When I hear our song come on, I smell the fresh cut hay
I feel my arms wrapped round your waist, you're tellin' me craz y things
'Bout how you might never leave, and I make you promise me, spi
nnin' 'neath

Mmm beautiful daydream, you were amazing girl you were mine
In that sundress, hair a mess, bumblebees overhead, stoppin' ti me yea we sure tried
When I think of summer, I'm with you back under that blueberry
sky

When you think of Autumn, in that Greyhound seat Blowin' kisses to a boy, you thought would always be there wait in' in the street
Girl we were so naïve, but I wouldn't trade a thing

Mmm beautiful daydream, you were amazing girl you were mine
In that sundress, hair a mess, bumblebees overhead, stoppin' ti me yea we sure tried
When I think of summer, I'm right with you back under that blue berry sky

In that sundress, hair a mess, you were my easiest hello, my ha rdest goodbye
When you think of summer, are ya with me back under that bluebe rry sky
