What Sarah Said

Death Cab for Cutie

And it came to me then that every plan is a tiny prayer to fath er time As I stared at my shoes in the ICU that reeked of piss and 409 And I rationed my breathes as I said to myself that I'd already taken too much today As each descending peak of the LCD took you a little farther aw ay from me Away from me

Amongst the vending machines and yearold magazines in a place where we only say goodbye It stung like a violent wind that our memories depend on a faul ty camera in our minds But I knew that you were a truth I would rather lose than to ha ve never lain beside at all And I looked around at all the eyes on the ground as the TV ent ertained itself

'Cause there's no comfort in the waiting room Just nervous pacers bracing for bad news And then the nurse comes round and everyone will lift their hea ds But I'm thinking of what Sarah said that "Love is watching some one die"

So who's going to watch you die?..
