

Mirror of Humanity

Decrepit Birth

Within the light of life
Exists the sacred paths
Into creation
Existing behind a blinding light of darkness
Of human want illusion
The white magnetic mirror of humanity
A living pool of self reflection

Reflecting mans self-consciousness
Relive the dream of my ancient lives
Two mirrors...
We come together...
Face each other
Selfless i face my self
Ka...Who am i

Intertwining of infinity within my self
The ageless form is again revealed
Mirroring humanity i stare into my self
Ka...Who am i

I am alone, self judgment
Illuminated in the light of truth
Living light of recollection
Absorbs my mind in it's vibration

Within the light of life, i become revealed
Self reflection rebirths wisdom
Eternal knowledge of life returns

Self revelation...I reawaken...Ka...I am
The consequence of my pre-destination
Predetermined through my past lives
The destiny of my actions

Intertwining of infinity within my self
The ageless form is again revealed
Mirroring humanity i stare into my self

I enter the pool of self reflection
Shattering the magnetic mirror of deception

Self revelation...I reawaken
Awakening within my consciousness
I reawaken...Myself...Atman...Ka

Displacing the frequencies
Through out the spectrum

Within seven mirrors of self reflection
Seven eyes of imagination
Seven realms within the image...
Into which i descend

Within the light of life
I walk the sacred paths
Of the creation

Existing behind a blinding light of darkness

Of the human condition
The white magnetic mirror of humanity
The hidden light of self deception

Reflection of my self conscious
Enter the dream of my future lives
Beyond the light of deception

Intertwining of infinity within the self
The ageless form...Ka...Evolution
Transcending humanity...Ascend into self
