

Say Hello

Decyfer Down

I understand the irrational
Held your hand for a pill or two
I was done, you wanted more
Felt helpless to stop you

Say hello to agony, say hello to agony

Trapped inside and you're so blind
Killed your love in place of life
Damage done, you wanna die,
Now a reason to numb your mind

Say hello cruel irony, say hello cruel irony

I still love you like yesterday
I still hope for your tomorrow
I still love you like yesterday
I still hope for your tomorrow

Say hello, I still love you

An outcast to the town
Scarlet letter on your chest
Never saw lead that could build a wall
Your concrete home was nobody's plan

Say hello to agony, say hello cruel irony

I still love you like yesterday
I still hope for your tomorrow
I still love you like yesterday
I still hope for your tomorrow
