

Sometimes You Win

Dee Snider

In the beginning there was just no love to find
Then eve told Adam, "bite this if you don't mind"
"Eve," said Adam as they left the garden
"This is something that should never have started"
Whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa, but her apple did shine

Sometimes you win
Sometimes you lose
But if you play
Honey you can't choose
Sometimes you win
Sometimes you lose
What can you do?

So Cleopatra put her spell on Anthony
"Tony", said Cleo, "win this one for me"
So he fought until his blood was spillin'
But we know it was the bitch that killed him
Whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa, but he made history

Sometimes you win
Sometimes you lose
But if you play
Honey you can't choose
Sometimes you win
Sometimes you lose
What can you do?

Here comes that love again
Sometimes a foe and sometimes a friend
Here comes that love again
You never know who, what, where, or when
Here comes that love again
Fun at the start, but a pain in the end
Here comes that love again

Sometimes you win
Sometimes you lose
But if you play
Honey you can't choose
Sometimes you win
Sometimes you lose
What can you do?

Sometimes you win
Sometimes you lose
But if you play
Honey you can't choose
Sometimes you win
Sometimes you lose
What can you do?
