

Blinded by the sun
And my skin is turning red
Do you recall yesterday
When we were sitting
On that bench right behind that old tree
Watching the sun go down
The sun going down

Oh, and I know that I
And I know that I
Shouldn't have made you cry
And I know that I
And I know that I
I shouldn't have made you cry

Aaaaah...

Blinded by the sun
And my skin is turning red
You make me so happy
But still I treat you so bad
And I only wonder how you can live
With my selfishness

Oh, and I know that I
And I know that I
Shouldn't have made you cry
And I know that I
And I know that I
I shouldn't have made you cry

I promise you now
That those days are gone
I swear I'll treat you better
Yes I will

Oh, and I know that I
And I know that I
Shouldn't have made you cry
And I know that I
And I know that I
I shouldn't have made you cry
