

Is It A Sin

Deepest Blue

Is it a sin, to love again?
I cannot win, this pain isn't fair
And yes I walked across the highest mountain
And yes I painted you a pretty sky
Now you say its over

Forgot to tell you I am sorry
Never had the time to lie
Now its like a sad old story
Why do lovers always cry
I never had the time to worry
I never had the time to try
Now you say its over

Is it a sin, to love again?
You broke me in
This won't repair

And yes I fell for you so madly deeply
And yes I want to hold you by my side
Now you say its over

Forgot to tell you I am sorry
Never had the time to lie
Now its like a sad old story
Why do lovers always cry
I never had the time to worry
I never had the time to try
Now you say its over
And now you say it's over

And yes I want to tell you I am angry
And yes I need to look you in the eye
Cause you said its over

Forgot to tell you I am sorry
Never had the time to lie
Now its like a sad old story
Why do lovers always cry
I never had the time to worry
I never had the time to try
Now you say its over
Now you say its over
Now you say its over

Is it a sin, to love again?
