

Too Sensitive for This World

Deer Tick

Every day starts
With a broken heart
I must be too sensitive for this world
Well I know it ain't right
To cry every night
I must be too sensitive for this world

And the world is such a careless place
It's a wonder, oh it's a wonder
Anyone survives

The clouds in the sky
Just make me cry
I must be too sensitive for this world
I don't think I can last
Until these bad times pass
I must be too sensitive for this world

And the world is such a careless place
And the world is such a selfish place
Oh, and life is such an awful fate
It's a wonder, oh it's a wonder
Anyone survives

I must be too sensitive for this world
I've gotta be too sensitive for this world
Sing it one time: Too sensitive for this world
Sing it two times: Too sensitive for this world
Sing it for your friends: (Too sensitive for this world)
Sing it for your friends again: (Too sensitive for this world)
I must be too sensitive for this world

I'm too sensitive for this world
Too sensitive for this world
Too sensitive for this world
Too sensitive for this world
