

Yesterday

Deez Nuts

Your dead inside, look in your eyes, there's nothing left.
No compromise, wont take your lies, I must contest.
There was a time, blind lead the blind, I must confess.
But now the servants have become the masters,
And to masters, you can't attest kid.

Seems like just yesterday,
I was defending your name.
Ain't it funny how shit pans out,
'cause you pissed all over mine to get ahead in this game.

What was you thinkin', fuck what was you thinkin'?
We thick as thieves, nothin' gets by us.
What was you thinkin', fuck what was you thinkin'?
We're quick to dismiss all the ones we can't trust.
What was you thinkin', fuck what was you thinkin'?
When your cards pulled, you don't stand by your words.
Now you walking 'round with egg on your face, fuckin' disgrace.

Man that shits for the birds.

Seems like just yesterday,
I supported your whole team.
Ain't it funny how shit plays out,
Don't see none of you anymore, guess were not in the same league.

Seems like just yesterday it was you and I, now it's you and lies.
You wanted to cool, but you needed elite technique to hunt with the wolves
Don't speak, don't speak, we ain't shearing shit. HA WHAT HA WHAT.
Yo you too weak, too weak, you sure ain't feeling this.
See the difference between you and us is YOU AND US.
We ain't trying to speak ill of you. All we barking is truth.
Don't believe me just listen. Don't believe us just watch.
Man, that shit's for the birds.
