

The Heat From Another Sun

Defleshed

Ahh...it's a combination of rights and wrongs and I feel at some occasions
I was gone to long

Like loneliness is feeding hopelessness
The silent laws are broken by it's cause

Feel the heat from another sun
The journey has begun
but there is a choice to be done

Take the fall
if it's a fall at all Some kind of violation that is turning to sensation
