Maybe jesus moved over the waters
Maybe you tried to equal him
And when you fail don't accuse him of manslaughter
Calm down and try to swim

Today I've got good news for all of you
The grass is green and the sky is blue
What you can see is what you will see
Maybe, maybe
Maybe, maybe

Maybe I'll meet you in paradise
Not because you threw a stone
Little boy your soul may rise
Maybe because you were too young

Today I've got good news for all of you
The grass is green and the sky is blue
What you can see is what you will see
Maybe, maybe
Maybe, maybe

Maybe the grail is flying about
On a place that we cannot see
Where the earth and the moon cancel out
Their fields of gravity

Today I've got good news for all of you
The grass is green and the sky is blue
What you can see is what you will see
Maybe, maybe
Maybe, maybe
