

Never Saw It Comin'

Delbert McClinton

I must have been a million miles away
Didn't even hear a word she had to say
Would have come as a surprise anyway
I never saw it comin' till she was leavin'

I was caught up in the day-to-day
Never noticed all the ways she changed
So I only have myself to blame
I never saw it comin' till she was leavin'

I reached out to her, but it was too late
It was all over anyway
I left it in the hands of fate
And tried to get used to the feelin'
I never saw it comin' till she was leavin'

She wouldn't even look me in the eye
And I never even wondered why
Never asked her for an alibi
I never saw it comin' till she was leavin'

Oh, it's true
My heart is broken too
I don't know, I don't know what to do anyway
Ah, no no no no
