

Until Then

Delbert McClinton

Alone and far away from you
And I'm feelin' just a little bit blue
Lyin' here alone in bed
Like butter without any bread
Nothin' but you on my mind
I spend a lot of time killin' time
But nothin' can take your place

I can't wait 'til when
I see you again
Until then

I tell myself it wont be long
'Til all this missin' you will be gone
And everything will be alright
Tonight again when I pretend
Until then

I'm struttin' it up and kickin' it down the street
You are my all for everyone to see
I'm gonna hold you give you kisses that wont ever end
We got a lot of catchin' up to do but
Until then

I tell myself it wont be long
'Til all this missin' you will be gone
And everything will be alright
Tonight again when I pretend
Until then

I'm struttin' it up and kickin' it down the street
You are my all for everyone to see
I'm gonna hold you and give you kisses that wont ever
End
We got a lot of catchin' up to do but
Until then until then
Oh yeah
Got it all goin' on baby
Right here in my head
Woo-whooh
