

Love

Delerium

Even my heart is broken in two
Now I feel no sense of certainty
Can there ever be any guarantees in life
Tell me

You ask yourself
What do you know
I know I'll always love you, baby
And you'll ask me
How I feel about you
(I'll tell you)
I know I'll always love you

Even home I feel whole often lost

Feel no sense of safety,
Can there ever be any guarantees in life
Tell me, oh tell me

You ask yourself
What do you know
I know I'll always love you, baby
And you'll ask me
How I feel about you
I know I'll always love you

I will take you away from yourself
(Yes I will take you away)
I dream each year
that I have loved you
