

Renegades

Delorean

as resentful as one can be a teenage useless waste half hearted aplause for renegades

aimless pale almost dying and never graces i got lost and don't know when

i've never really sang a song and never will and surely 'better be dead than heard'

seek and worn squeezed to death to young for this and tragicly awake

oh i would only change this if a cold always be could always be blessed
