Always a new temptation, I am desire
Always in moderation, if it's a hunger from the heart
Trying to keep it all out of sight and mind
Out of sight and mind, trying to work a reason why, I don't rec ognize myself

The less you expect from me, the less you get

Every test you give me the more I can remedy myself

I can't keep giving into mistakes I've made

The mistakes I've made

I can't keep living life left behind, I don't recognize myself

Always a new temptation and no one hears me now
Always in moderation, if it's a hunger from the heart
Trying to keep it all out of sight and mind
Out of sight and mind
Trying to work a reason why, I don't recognize myself

I don't recognize myself Are you now are you now?
