

Someone's Out to Get Me

Demented Are Go!

Well I get this feeling that I'm being followed Feel the eyes of a stranger watching me
And my body, it trembles all over
I feel the hand of someone touching me

Someone's out to get me tonight
If I'm caught I don't think I'll put up much of a fight
Someone' got their arms around me holding on so tight
If that someone gets their way, I'll be hers tonight

I thought I was alone when I walked into this room
I sensed that someone else by the smell of sweet perfume
The voices are a-whisperin' deep into my ear
Saying all the things, things I want to hear

Someone's out to get me tonight
If I'm caught I don't think I'll put up much of a fight
Someone' got their arms around me holding on so tight
If that someone gets their way, I'll be hers tonight

Well I know I shouldn't be on my own this late at night
I guess I'm looking for that something missing in my life
It's too late, there's no escape, she's got me in her sights
Someone's out to get me tonight

Someone's out to get me tonight
If I'm caught I don't think I'll put up much of a fight
Someone' got their arms around me holding on so tight
If that someone gets their way, I'll be hers tonight
If that someone gets their way, I'll be hers tonight
If that someone gets their way, I'll be hers tonight
