

Reincarnation

Demigod

A trial in a forsaken tomb
Remains of human cadaver
Enliven to be reincarnated
Repulsively stinking waves
As flesh and tissue appears
Heavy sound of slow breath
Echoes in decayed coffin
Organic reaction of life

Exigency to gather more flesh out from the grave
Nocturnal journey through the godly mists above the corpses buried
Grip of death - Totally gone as life reigns the body
Pure flesh from the streets to reach total reincarnation

Reincarnation

Awaken rotten body
Deceased shall live again
Decomposed flesh created fresh nocturnal procreation of the dead

Exigency to gather more flesh out from the grave
Nocturnal journey through the godly mists above the corpses buried
Grip of death - Totally gone as life reigns the body
Pure flesh from the streets to reach total reincarnation
