

The Other Woman

Demis Roussos

Early morning lover... amber colored eyes
Hair as dark as midnight, she was my paradise
She took me through the hard times
Never thought my heart would compromise

But the other woman
My heart can't deny
Makes me feel like I'm touching the sky
While the other woman
I've loved faithfully
Keeps her love strong for me

Emerald eyes that sparkle
Skin as soft as rain
Golden hair caress me
Over and over again

But the other woman
My heart can't deny
Makes me feel like I'm touching the sky
While the other woman
I've loved faithfully
Keeps her love strong for me

Oh amber eyes
We made the climb
I guess we just ran out of time
