

Death Unfaithful

Demonical

I'm drowning in this sombre light
Falling through the misty void
Thoughts of hope are gone
Beyond what once passed
I'm running from the bright
Across the nightly sky
Tried to leave them there
Dreams that came forth with fear

Let's walk away
Choosing the path
No light nor day

As I die unfaithful, as I die ungrateful
Storms will rise - lifeless ground

In despair and grief I dwell
Everything was wrong and gone
With bitterness and zero joy
I have mourned for years so long
When it's time to leave this world
A long and strange trip ahead
With each hour it lets me see
The night that puts me to sleep

Let's crawl away
Choosing to search
For the final way

As I die unfaithful, as I die ungrateful
Storms will rise - lifeless ground
As I die unfaithful, as I die ungrateful
Turning black - burden down

As I die unfaithful, as I die ungrateful
Storms will rise - lifeless ground
As I die unfaithful, as I die ungrateful
Turning black - burden down
