

Towards Greater Gods

Demonical

Bow down kneel, under the eternal sky
The land lays open, follow the bong of blood
Sons of the northern stars, stares on the ocean wide
Prepared to battle, with hopes of victory and pride

Fire - Raise flames higher - One be one
Northbound - Towards greater gods

The fading sun, burst into lethal flames
Revealing the mist, rivers of dancing light
Hearts of the brave, broken promises and lies
Art of war, grieving the hope that died

Fire - Raise flames higher - One be one
Northbound - Towards greater gods

The last offensive: Onward!
No fear discovered: Onward!
Death to be transformed
Blood is the reward: Onward!

Fire - Raise flames higher - One be one
Northbound - Towards greater gods
