

Redemption

Dermot Kennedy

Every wrong I did turned me to a better kid
So alright
Every time we kissed knew I wanted more of it so don't hide
Never let it in especially since we're getting rid of all lies
You know you've always been someone I've confided in on the cold nights

But redemption will come for you soon
Guess I'll just call it a feeling
Tonight, I'll just comfort you so
Maybe you could start to believe it

All I know
Oh no, no, I won't let go
Oh no, no I'll never leave ya
Oh no, no, I won't let go, no (All I know)
Will you start to believe it?
Oh no, no, I won't let go
Oh no, no I'll never leave ya
Oh no, no, I won't let go, no (All I know)
Will you start to believe it?
(All I know)

All those nights alone, demons that you've never known would run through
Never had a hope, never let your wings unfold
But I know you
Every word I wrote, every single thing I told
It's all true
Let your spirit show you that I could never hold, we'll leave soon.

But redemption will come for you soon
Guess I'll just call it a feeling
Tonight, I'll just comfort you so
Maybe you could start to believe it

Oh no
Oh no, no, I won't let go
Oh no, no I'll never leave ya
Oh no, no, I won't let go, no
Will you start to believe it?
Oh no, no, I won't let go
Oh no, no I'll never leave ya
Oh no, no, I won't let go, no
Will you start to believe it?

Guess we kinda thought it was easy
Guess we kinda thought it was easy
'Least I saw the heart of you briefly, honey
Guess we kinda thought it was easy
Still I know the thought of you frees me
'Least I saw the heart of you

Redemption will come for you soon
Guess I'll just call it a feeling
Tonight, I'll just comfort you so
Maybe you could start to believe it

Oh no

Oh no, no, I won't let go
Oh no, no I'll never leave ya
Oh no, no, I won't let go, no
Will you start to believe it?
Oh no, no, I won't let go
Oh no, no I'll never leave ya
Oh no, no, I won't let go, no
Will you start to believe it?
