

Nothing in my hands

Destination Anywhere

Can you tell me what the hell went wrong
Give me a reason or an explanation
I'm desperate now for way too long
And no I'm on my own with my frustration

Now I'm standing here with nothing in my hands
Now I'm standing here I'm on my own now
Now I'm standing here with nothing in my hands
Now I'm standing here I'm all alone

Never thought I'd live like this again
Never thought I'd live in isolation
Never thought I'd be broken man
Never thought it could be my reaction

Now I'm standing here with nothing in my hands
Now I'm standing here I'm on my own now
Now I'm standing here with nothing in my hands
Now I'm standing here I'm all alone
