

A Promise, A Debt

Destrage

I've got a thing
Inside my pocket
It's paper but I was told
It's worth same gold up North
It seems a great deal
Since it's European
We trade ten for twelve
It's plain but it works
They come with a debt
In fact
Every promise is a debt
