

Cue Synthesizer

Destroyer

Did you realize it was hollow?
Like everything that's come before, you were gone
The idiot dissonant roar
That exquisite gong struck dumb

Cue synthesizer
Cue guitar
Bring in the drums
Queue fake drums

The idea of the world is no good
The terrain is no good
The sea's blasted poem
A twinkle in the guitar player's eye

Cue synthesizer
Cue guitar
Cue synthesizer
Wherever you are

Open door policy not a goddamn thing in the night

Death threats scrawled in invisible ink's alright
Went to Europe went to America. It's the same shit
Been to Europe been to America. It's all the same shit
I look around the room, I see a room of hip ponies
Drowning forever in a sea of love
I look around the room, we are a room of hip ponies
Drowning forever in a sea of love
Wherever you are...
Wherever you are...
Wherever you are...

Cue synthesizer...
