You wake up in a pool of blood You can't remember that you'd cut -Human beings into pieces Of dead meat and disgusting guts! Of course they don't deserve to live But who are you that you decide Which life will get swallowed From the eternal jaws of death! Despair - pain Despair leads to hate Pain causes fear Try - to forget Time - will not heal Resign - deep inside Devastation of your Soul - don't forget Time - will not heal Resign - deep inside Devastation of your soul ... The reason for your cruel deeds Are not relevant in a world of creeps They play the game of the dying, In a world that's crying Kill or be killed will be the commandment of our Dirty rotten breed The death penalty for humanity in world of greed!
