

Five Seconds To Hold You

Devics

then you'll slowly vanish from my arms please don't speak or break this spell you know it doesn't matter

five fathoms below you i've waited a lifetime but as you drift by over me

five years without you they couldn't tear a moment from my mind but memories fade and so did yours you know it doesn't matter anymore
