

Through this bleak midwinter
Through the hardest times
While we're hurting, we will question why we try
Every thought in our heads
Every feeling found
Set to test
Set to drain
Overcome
While we were pacing through our thoughts
Are we searching ourselves for the only clue?
While we were pacing through our minds
Are we waking now?
Are we holding onto grief?
Until the very last
Until the pain has passed, I won't break
Until the worst has left our minds
Until the very last
Until the pain has passed
I won't find what I'm looking for
This time I'll find
A meaning in the end, and a purpose to believe in
This time I'll find

A new path to walk, just to leave this all behind
I've been searching my whole life
Calling out to make it what we can
I've been searching my whole life
For a sunset that we can't pull down
This time I'll find
A meaning in the end, and a purpose to believe in
This time I'll find
A new path to walk, just to leave this all behind
Tidal waves crashing down
(I'm falling)
(I'm hurting)
(I'm waiting to heal)
Tidal waves
(I'm falling)
(I'm hurting)
Our time has gone
(I'm waiting to heal)
(I'm falling
I'm hurting
I'm waiting to heal
I'm falling
I'm hurting
I'm waiting to heal)
