I'm on the A13 on the way to the city, where the lights Are bright with some boys that like to fight, I'm leaning. Out the window, smoking a spliffy. Through the wind in my eyes, like tears that I cry, Getting high on the essence of life. Cause' tonight we're in London city. And I got bout' 400 With me...

Many clubs and bars await. We're gonna drink and dance Till' it's late.

And my name is Bait, so a lotta young ladies wanna Glance at my face. One a' got a glass in their hand and A wiggling their ass and their waist.

It's the old t-show, sexy ladies who wind down low. And If ya get approached by a bloke, who smells of weed, Smoke, don't act like you don't wanna know.

And now I'm pissed up running in the road, staggering, Looking for a cab back to Bagenham to kick back and Cotch,

With this sexy blue eyed brunnette girl that I got. With the light in the cab it was more than a lot. London City just pop.
