

Through My Tears

DGM

Open your heart
There's a feeling in the air
In everything's that I do
Let me see I can face the truth

Open your mind is now or never
Startin' to change your life
Looking for love we will rise
To keep what I need

I know that you let me down
But know I can see

I fall asleep into my dream
I'll find a reason to believe
I cannot see but through my tears
I'll find a reason...

Everything's I'm feeling it's not what I need
But I'm dreaming away
All I want it's only your love that I feel
In the air

I know that you let me down
But now I can see

I'm starting to realize come into my reality
(Take my hand tonight)

I fall asleep into my dream
I'll find a reason to believe
I cannot see but through my tears
I'll find a reason...
