

Feels So Good

Dianne Reeves

Sometimes, I get so tangled in my emotions
Stuck in a "why" and who's to blame?
How I'll list to change the natural motion
Knowing that some things will never change
So I let it go...oh yeah...
Coz there are things you simply can't control

*And it feels so good
I wanna stay lifted
I wanna stay free
Yes it feels so good
Just to be open
Just to be seen

Sometimes, I give my consent to skillful disillusion
Let that control my inner dreams
I'll write the story's ending before it begins
And make conclusions based on where I've been
And I let go...oh yeah
There are things I know I can't control

**And it feels so good
Now that I'm lifted
Now that I'm free
It feels so good
Just to be open
Just to be seen
(In grace and peace)

Always a chance to choose to walk your sacred journey
With your eyes opened, not closed

Then I let go...oh year
There are things I know I can't control

Takin' my time
Feels so good to be free
Lighter than air
Lifted
Lovin' every part of me
Walkin' with my heart
Walkin' in my strength
Walkin' in my stride
Walkin' in the night with amazing grace
In full bloom
