

I'm Okay

Dianne Reeves

Winters of my life

They've been around so long

It's been so cold inside

But then again I know

I'm all right

I'm okay

Many roads, many wrong turns

No matter where I went

My past was always there

Used to think all the troubles were meant for me

Lots and lots of times

When life was hitting harder

I never had the strength to stop and say

I'm all right

I'm okay

Many times, many lovers

Who never got the chance to love the way I love them

Ran away after taking a part of me

Many nights, many tears

Many dreams, many fears

But I came to the end with a smile

'cause I'm all right

I'm okay

The rains may fall

The winds may blow my hopes away

But in time I know I can always say

I'm all right

I'm all right

I'm okay
