

Mercy Me

Diary of Dreams

I apologize for who I am
Victim and witness
All in one

Repeat what I say
The words I was told
Vicious the circle
An echo divine
But I never give up
I never give in
I never could dare not to break you apart

Come my way

There is nothing I can do
I stand and watch it all go down

And this is the circle
You're trying to break
And these are the wheels
You're trying to turn

I was here to save you
But I can not even save myself
