

Black Painted Heaven

Die Happy

I'm back in the place I started
My black painted heaven over me
Still here
You call and I never call back
You see that it's time to change my mind
Finally now

Today's when I decided
Today it's time to move
Today my life's for real

I would hide and
I will be brave
but please

I'm back in the place I started
My black painted heaven over me
Still here
You call and I never call back
You see that it's time to change my mind
Finally now

Today's when I decided
Today it's time to move
Today my life's for real

I will hide and
I will be brave
But please
Could you hold me?
